

Andreas Nidecker , MD

Basel, Switzerland

Dr. Nidecker completed his postgraduate education in the US and in Switzerland. Experienced as General Practitioner in Colombia, South America and Jamaica. Trained and received the Diploma of the American Board of Radiology at the University of Toronto / Canada. In 1999, he became the associate professor of Radiology at University of Basel.

Dr. Nidecker is a specialist in diagnostic radiology, nuclear medicine and MRIs, and is also the Co-Founder and partner of a larger private group practice in Basel with a teaching position at the University of Basel. Member of the Radiological Society of North America (RSNA), the American College of Radiology (ACR), the Swiss Medical Association, the Swiss Association for Medical Radiology, the International Skeletal Society. Professional interests: bone tumors.

From 2008-2010, Dr. Nidecker served on the IPPNW Board as the head of the organizing committee of the 2010 IPPNW World Congress. He has been active in IPPNW since the mid Eighties and was President of the Swiss affiliate for a number of years. Also president of "Sun21 - energy and resources", a Basel based association to promote energy conservation and the use of renewables, co-founded with Martin Vosseler, the founder of PSR / IPPNW Switzerland.